To: Prospective Proposers

From: Soboba Tribal TANF Program

Subject: Individualized and Family Counseling, Crisis Intervention and Clinical Therapy 2023

Site: Soboba, Santa Rosa and Cahuilla Indian Reservation Sites

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE:

The Soboba Tribal TANF Program (STTP) is requesting proposals from qualified service provider(s) that are interested and willing to engage our TANF clients and their families in counseling services. We are looking for licensed providers who want to work with TANF clients and their families in non-traditional settings, who are comfortable providing services in the home and in the community. Service activities shall include assessment activities, family strengthening services, individualized program planning, counseling, crisis intervention, visitation, parenting education and clinical therapy.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

Tribal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) is a Federal and State funded program that provides time limited assistance to needy and at-risk Native American families in an effort for those children to be cared for in their homes or in the homes of their relatives. The primary focus of STTP is to assist Native American families to reach their fullest potential in securing economic stability while encouraging wellness in the family. STTP is approved to serve Native American families on the Soboba, Santa Rosa and Cahuilla Indian Reservations, and the city of Riverside. Soboba and Santa Rosa Tribal members may reside anywhere in Riverside County.

SCOPE OF WORK:

The selected contractor must be able to provide counseling services from January 1, 2023 to December 31, 2023. STTP contractors will be responsible for arranging and monitoring the participation of the TANF clients in the scheduled counseling sessions and ensuring they meet targeted program goals. There should be an emphasis on reducing intergenerational welfare dependency and promoting healthy life styles. Examples of desired services includes, but is not limited to:

- Assessments/Evaluations: Emergency mental health evaluations, psychiatric evaluations psychological evaluations, learning disorder assessments
- Treatment Services: Individual, family, child, adolescent, couples counseling and group counseling sessions; court ordered therapy, crisis intervention, and anger management etc.

Number of Monthly Sessions: 55 counseling sessions

Schedule: Weekly sessions are to be hosted at the service provider's business site, STTP Soboba, Santa Rosa and Cahuilla Indian Reservation offices, and/or in participant homes. Sessions can be held during the day, afternoon, or evenings depending on the needs of the TANF families. At least 75% of counseling sessions must be provided by the Licensed Clinician.

Reports: Contractor shall submit monthly reports identifying performance measures such as weekly participation, knowledge gained and improvement measurables.
